EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Tim Lorenz on 6/9/06.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 31, line 12, after the word, "two", "wire less" has been replaced with "wireless".

Claim 33, line 7, after the word "unit", "using capable of operating" has been deleted.

Reasons For Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1, Prior Art fails to disclose design of separately housing a logical entity such as a common cell controller from RF ports, wherein the logical entity or wired network such as the common cell controller in conjunction with each RF port provides wireless medium access to the wireless local area subnetworks for mobile units in a designated area associated with the RF port in accordance with the wireless communication standard protocol having higher and lower medium access function, wherein the logical entity such as the cell controller is configured to perform the higher level MAC functions for the plurality of RF ports in combination with other limitations set forth in the respective claim. The advantage of such a redesign (as indicated in the Remarks, page 14, lines 2-6 filed on 5/15/06) provides among other things, a concentration of operational control in one or more devices other than the RF ports, which eases a system management, including installation of medication and upgrades, and reduces the computational requirements and costs of the individual RF ports.

Furthermore, independent claims 15, 18, 19, 23, 27, 31, 33 have a similar reasons for allowance as claim 1 with slight variation of structure and logical entity arrangement, yet the concept of invention remains similar.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
